

Eszter Illés DLA

---

The Artisjus prize-winning flautist is a soloist and chamber musician at numerous concerts, festivals, charity events and church concerts, where she performs with renowned pianists, orchestras, and various instrumental chamber ensemble formations, at her motherland – Hungary - and throughout Europe. Her studied flutist at the Ferenc Liszt University of Music in Budapest, and then completed his doctorate studies (DLA) at the Faculty of Music of the University of Pécs.

She attended the courses of internationally recognized professors - Aurèle Nicolet, Sir James Galway, Motoaki Kato, Yossi Arnheim, Peter Lucas Graf. Winner of several national competitions.

Since 2009, he has been a member of the Board of the Hungarian Flute Society and in the same year he obtained his Arts & Business Manager degree at the Budapest University of Communication. For three years she was the editor of Fuvolaszó, the national magazine of the Hungarian Flute Society. Several of his own articles, interviews with famous artists and numerous translations were published in the paper and other magazines.

She taught flute major and chamber music at the Béla Bartók Institute of Music of the University of Miskolc, the Béla Bartók Conservatory in Budapest and the Vocational School of Arts in Nyíregyháza. In addition to his teaching activities, he held courses and further training in our country and beyond our borders. Teaching plays an important role in his profession, educating and helping flutists of the future generation.

She primarily performs concerts with flute-harp and flute-piano duos, as well as with a string quartet. In addition to fully performing the very wide and rich repertoire of classical flute literature, he considers it important to be open to contemporary music, to introduce and introduce the musical works of our time.

Married, mother of two children.